

San Diego City College

International Education Week

Tues., Nov. 14 - Thurs., Nov. 16, 2006

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State and Department of Education, International Education Week is celebrated every year on college campuses across the U.S. to expose students and faculty to global concepts and themes.

Tuesday, November 14

Room D-121A

- 10:00-11:00 am Executive Director Joanne Tawfilis, United Nations Association of San Diego
"Preparing for an International Career"
- 11:15-12:15 pm Sharon Darrough, International Rescue Committee
"Humanitarian Issues in Darfur"
- 12:30-1:30 pm Cross-cultural perspectives of students from Turkey, Kyrgystan, and China

Wednesday, November 15

Room D-121A

- 10:00-11:00 am Dr. Ina von Ber, President, San Diego World Affairs Council
"What MBAs will Look Like in the Year 2020."
- 11:15-12:15 pm City College Study Abroad Coordinator, Financial Aid Counselor, and returned study abroad participant
"Study Abroad and Funding Sources"
- 1:00-2:00 pm Returned Peace Corps Volunteers
"The Peace Corps Experience"

Thursday, November 16

Room D-121A

- 10:00-11:00 am Armando Abiña, Dean and Myles Clowers, Professor, City College
"Applying for a Fullbright Scholarship" – FLEX credit
- 11:15-12:15 pm Bill Stewart, City College Philosophy Professor
"Globalizing the Curriculum" – FLEX credit
- 1:00-2:00 pm Returned Peace Corps Volunteers
"Lessons From Returned Peace Corps Volunteers"

Times and room numbers are subject to change.

For more information contact: Marion Froehlich, mfroehli@sdccd.edu, 619.388.3652 or Pat Centurione, pcenturi@sdccd.edu, 619.388.3149